

Cut book out as one piece. Fold bottom up. Add a tiny strip of glue to each side. Fold book in thirds with "fact or fiction" on the front. Cut strips out (from next page). Let your student sort them by fact and fiction. Hint: there are three true facts and five fiction. Use the book Johnny Appleseed by Steven Kellogg to help with this mini book.

fact
OR fiction

storage

Johnny Appleseed's real name was John Chapman.	Johnny's feet were as tough as an elephant's hide; even a rattlesnake couldn't bite through!
Johnny had ten siblings!	Johnny kept a wolf for a pet.
Johnny Appleseed made a bed high in the treetops and chatted with birds.	Johnny played with a family of bears.
He travelled over 100,000 square miles planting apple seeds.	Johnny planted trees as far west as California.